The Telecommunications in Dubai are excellent. Full telex, fax and electronic mail are widely available. There are two English language newspapers published in Dubai and major international newspapers are also available. Dubai has both Arabic and English commercial radio and television stations as well as access to international satellite TV programmes.

The national language is Arabic but English is the main language of business.

Dubai's culture is firmly rooted in the Islamic traditions of Arabia. Courtesy and hospitality are among the most highly prized virtues. Dubai society is marked by a high degree of tolerance to different lifestyles. Women face no discrimination and drive and move around unescorted.
